Regulation of 23 November 2007 No. 1319 concerning fees for the issue of certificates and endorsements to maritime personnel

§ 1
Scope of application
This Regulation concerns fees for the processing of applications for certificates or endorsements which are issued to maritime personnel under the Act relating to Ship Safety and Security (the Ship Safety and Security Act) and Regulations laid down pursuant to the said Act.

Issue of fees
The Norwegian Maritime Directorate, or whoever is assigned the task of issuing certificates or endorsements to maritime personnel, shall issue fees.

§ 3
Payment of fees
Fees for the processing of applications for certificates or endorsements shall be payable to the Norwegian Maritime Directorate, unless specifically decided otherwise.
Fees shall be paid by the person applying for the certificate or endorsement and payment shall have taken place before the document is delivered.
If an application for a certificate or endorsement is not accepted, the fee paid will be reimbursed.

Fee rates
The following fee rates (in NOK) shall be used for the issue of certificates and endorsements:
- Deck and engineer officer certificates 600
- Endorsement/Approval of foreign certificate 600
- Tanker and offshore personnel certificates 400
- Cook’s certificate, navigational and engineering watch certificates, rescue and fast rescue boat certificates, assessor certificates 400
- Duplicates 300

§ 5
Entry into force
This Regulation enters into force at the same time as the Regulation of 21 December 2001 No. 1490 concerning fees for the issue of certificates and endorsements to maritime personnel is repealed.¹
